4. Identify all persons who might have knowledge of the facts and circumstances you have described, as well as the nature of the testimony the witness will provide. Include the address and telephone number for each person.

CHECK HERE ☐ IF ADDITIONAL PAGES ARE ATTACHED.

5. Attach copies of all documents or items you believe provide credible evidence to support your allegations. NRS 281.511(2)(b)(1) requires you to submit all related evidence on which you rely to support your allegations. NAC 281.194 requires a Commission panel to base its decisions on credible evidence, which does not include a newspaper article or other media report offered by itself. Credible evidence is considered a minimal level of any reliable and competent form of proof provided by witnesses, records, documents, exhibits, minutes, agendas, videotapes, photographs, concrete objects, or other similar items that would reasonably support the allegations made within the complaint.
